Friends of the Library Hosts Semi-Annual Fall Book Sale

(Roanoke County, VA—September 12, 2017) The Friends of the Roanoke County Public Library will host its Fall Book Sale from Saturday, September 30 through Thursday, October 5 at the South County Library in Roanoke. The sale will take place during regular business hours: Saturday 9am to 5pm, Sunday 1pm-5pm, and Monday through Thursday 9am-9pm.

The book sale will have thousands of fiction and non-fiction books, children's books, videos, DVDs, and audiobooks on sale at incredibly low prices. Wednesday, October 4, is Half-Price Day and Thursday, October 5, is Box Day. On Box Day, patrons can bring a box and fill it full of books and other materials for only $3.00.

The Friends group, which sponsors the book sale, is a non-profit, membership-based organization dedicated to building a strong library system in Roanoke County. Annually, a single membership is $15, and a family membership fee is $20. Benefits include early admission into the spring and fall book sales; a membership meeting and dinner at the Spring Book Sale; and discounts or first choice tickets for Friends-sponsored events, like Mystery Night which is happening Saturday, November 11, 2017. Memberships may be purchased at any Roanoke County Public Library location or by printing and completing the online form and returning it with payment.

The Friends Book Sale is the Library's main fundraiser. All proceeds benefit the Roanoke County Public Library. The South County Library is located at 6303 Merriman Road, in Roanoke.

*The Roanoke County Public Library is the community's primary resource for lifelong learning and the place people turn to for the discovery of ideas, the joy of reading, and the power of information. There are six libraries in Roanoke County: South County Library, Bent Mountain, Glenvar, Hollins, Mount Pleasant, and Vinton.
